

Dear Pauline

Congratulations to you, governors, leadership team and staff on this wonderful diocesan inspection report!

This report is an absolute delight to read and there is something tremendously enriching and encouraging for a school when objective 'visitors' recognise and acknowledge the superb work being done. Shining through the report was the way in which your pupils are being developed as leaders – in preparing and participating in the vibrant prayer life and in supporting each other. I was impressed by the opportunities for the pupils to grow to become the people God created them to be and the way pupils develop compassion, notably for those on the margins of society. What also came through as a real strength was the development of the pupils' religious literacy and their ability to articulate their faith with maturity for their ages. Your relationship with parents and parish is so very effective in providing the pupils with the best possible Catholic education you can provide.

As always it is the quality of leadership, the vision and inspiration of the head and her leadership team, with governors, that enables a school to move forward with such strength.

The final report has been published on the Diocesan website. It is now ready for you to share with parents and to publish on your own website.

With every good wish and warmest congratulations.
