

Read, Write,
Inc resources and books.

The children are formally assessed every half term and informally assessed constantly.

They are placed in groups according to these assessments.

They will receive a weekly reading book which matches the group they are in. This power point explains each book level.

They will also receive weekly emails that include videos for them to watch. These videos help children to practice their sounds, their reading and their writing.

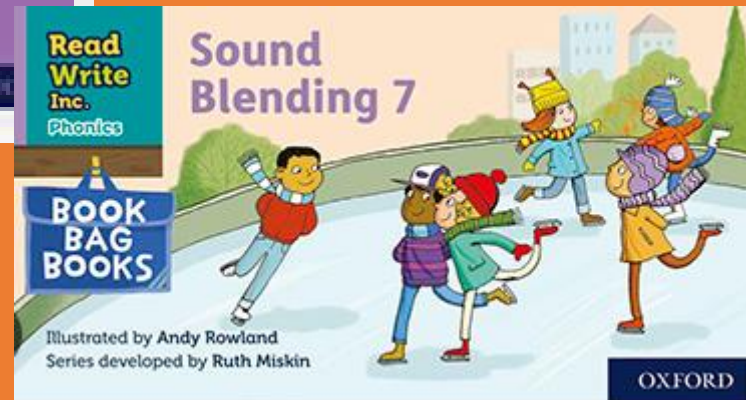

You do not have to purchase these Read, Write, Inc materials but if you would like to they are available online. We do not provide you with these.
