Information for Children

What is SEN?

SEN stands for Special Educational Needs.

Some children might need extra help with:

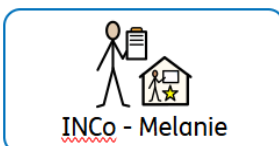

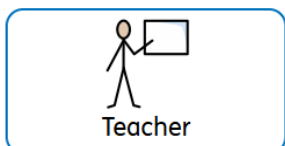

Everyone learns

OK! We're here to help you learn in the best way for you.

differently, and that's

Who Can I Talk To?

If you're finding something tricky, you can talk to:

We all work together to help you!

How Do We Help?

We might:

 Use special tools	 Play games	 Help in lessons	 Use a quiet space
 Give extra time	 Give breaks	 Use visuals	 Use symbols
There are lots of other help too!		 Share worries	 Give check-ins

things we can do to

What is a Support Plan?

If you need lots of extra help, we might make a Support Plan just for you.

It says:

- What you find tricky
- What help you'll get
- What the goals are
- Who will help you

You and your grown-ups can help make the plan!

How Are Families Involved?

Your family can:

What Happens When I Move to a New Class or School?

We make sure your new teacher or school knows:

- What you're good at
- What help you need
- How we've helped you before

You can visit your new class or school and meet your new teachers too!

Remember...

It's OK to need extra help.

We're here to help you be your best YOU!
